Publication Information

According to REM, a student in the master study program who is eligible to graduate must complete the publication requirement with the following conditions:

Study Plan A Type A1: Publish (or acceptance to be publish) the entire or part(s) of the master thesis in an international academic journal or other accepted academic publications in the database announced by the Commission of Ministry of Higher Education, Science, Research and Innovation or Civil Service Commission in Higher Education Institutions (OCSC); or in the international conference proceeding (paper) with full paper in the SCOPUS database. The publication must be written in English and according to the TGGS Regulation and Announcement. The student is required to submit at least one publication.

Study Plan A Type A2: Publish (or acceptance to be publish) the entire or part(s) of the master thesis in the international conference proceeding (paper) with full paper or an international academic journal or other accepted academic publications. The publication must be written in English and according to the TGGS Regulation and Announcement. The student is required to submit at least one publication.

Study Plan B: Publish the entire or part(s) of the master project in any form that can be searched.

According to RED, a student in the doctoral study program who is eligible to graduate must complete the publication requirement by publishing (or acceptance to be publish) the entire or part(s) of the dissertation in an international academic journal or other accepted academic publications. The publication must be written in English and according to the TGGS Regulation and Announcement. The student is required to submit at least two publications.
