

Announcement of the Sirindhorn International Thai-German Graduate School of Engineering on English Proficiency Test Methods and Criteria for Graduation
(No. 5)

---

According to the resolution of the committee meeting of the Sirindhorn International Thai-German Graduate School of Engineering No. 4/2022 on March 30, 2022, the resolution was stated on the guidelines for considering the English proficiency test result from a Language Testing Centre that does not meet the criteria as specified in the announcement on the English Test Methods and Criteria for Graduation (No. 4). In the announcement specified in item 2 criteria on English language proficiency test result for Master's Degree Programs (3) the student whose has the English proficiency test result from a Language Testing Centre that does not meet the criteria.

Add the statement in item 2 (3) in the announcement of the Sirindhorn International Thai-German Graduate School of Engineering on English Proficiency Test Methods and Criteria for Graduation (No. 4) on May 6, 2021 as follows:

The student whose has the English proficiency test result from a Language Testing Centre that does not meet the criteria can submit a request for consideration on a case by case basis in comparing and substituting the test scores along with supporting evidence to the committee of the Sirindhorn International Thai-German Graduate School of Engineering through the program coordinator or the curriculum chairman and TGGS Associate Dean for Academic Affairs and Quality Management. The comparisons and substitutions which can be considered are as follows:

1. The comparison and substitution of the other Language Testing Centre with the Language Testing Centre specified in the TGGS announcement.
2. The comparison and substitution of English courses and school-record form another institute with KMUTNB English courses as specified in the announcement.

This announcement shall come into force as from the announced date.

Announced on May 5, 2022

(Prof. Dr.- Ing Nisai Fuengwarodsakul)
TGGS Dean

The Sirindhorn International
Thai German
Graduate School of Engineering