APPENDIX

Degree Verification

Degree Verification (English Version) Requirement for those who graduate from institutions outside Thailand

What is Degree Verification?

Degree verification serves as evidence that the applicant's degree or academic qualification is genuine and recognized by the issuing institution.

This verification typically includes essential details such as the applicant's name, course name, and graduation date to confirm that the degree or academic qualification is accurate and officially issued.

Submission Deadline

The required documents must be submitted by the application deadline as specified on the TGGGS website.

If TGGGS receives the degree verification after the application deadline, or if it is not received, the application will be considered incomplete and rejected.

How Can Applicants Verify Their Degree with TGGGS?

Applicants may choose one of the following methods for degree verification. To complete the process, at least one of these methods must be submitted to TGGGS by the application deadline as specified on the TGGGS website:

1. Online Degree Verification – An online system provided by the university or relevant authority to verify the authenticity of the applicant's degree. Applicants must complete the required information in the designated section at the TGGGS Online Application System.
2. Verification from the Registrar's Office – An official document issued by the university's registrar's office confirming the authenticity of the applicant's degree and ensuring that it was issued by an accredited institution.

Requirements:

- Must be issued by the registrar's office.
 - Must include the university's official seal/stamp and the signature of an authorized official.
 - Must confirm the details of the degree and the university's accreditation status.
 - If issued in a language other than English, an official translation must be provided.
3. Degree Verification Letter – An official letter issued by the university or relevant authority confirming the applicant's graduation as stated on their diploma. This document typically includes:
 - Applicant's full name
 - Degree title and field of study
 - Date of graduation
 - Name and accreditation status of the university
 - Signature and official seal/stamp of an authorized official (e.g., registrar, advisor, dean, etc.)

Requirements:

- Must be printed on the official letterhead.
- Must contain an authorized signature and official seal/stamp.
- If issued in a language other than English, an official translation must be provided.

Helpful Forms

TGGS provides a standard request form at the end of this document to facilitate the university or relevant authority. If the university or relevant authority does not have a template for issuing a Degree Verification Letter, they may use the form we have provided.

Submission Methods for Verification from the Registrar's Office or Degree Verification Letter

1. By Official Email

- The university official or relevant authority must send the document directly to TGGS USING THEIR OFFICIAL EMAIL DOMAIN at admissions-inter@tggs-bangkok.org

2. By Postal Mail

- The document must be PHYSICALLY SIGNED and bear the official stamp or seal of the institution.
- It must be sent directly from the university official or relevant authority (as verified by the sender's address on the envelope).
- The document must be enclosed in a sealed envelope, with the institution's stamp, seal, or the signature of an authorized official across the back flap.
